PASTORAL NOTES

St Aidan of Lindisfarne

"When St Oswald had come to the throne of Northumbria in AD 634, and wished to spread the faith among his people, he asked the monks of Iona to send him a bishop to preach to his pagan subjects. The first who came had no success and blamed the rude character and indocile disposition of the English. The monks called a synod to see what was to be done. Aidan, who was present, told the missionary the fault lay on him not the people. He had been too harsh and severe to an ignorant people, who ought first to be fed with the milk of milder doctrine till they should be able to digest more solid food. The assembly recognised Aidan's gift of prudence and appointed him to be the missionary". The king gave him the isle of Lindisfarne to be his centre, between Berwick and Bamburgh in Northumberland. The isle is cut off by the tides, only for the road to reappear at low tide, a worthwhile place to visit.

"HMP Grendon is seeking to appoint a suitably qualified deacon, religious or lay person to the post of Catholic chaplain. This is a part time post. We are looking for candidates who are experienced in working with people on the edge of society, who have some pastoral experience, a love for the Church and an ability to work in a multi faith environment. The job is for 20 hours a week, working arrangements will be worked out later. HMP Grendon is a cat B therapeutic community mainly focusing on enabling prisoners to examine and explore their past in order to understand the way they have been shaped in terms of offending behaviour. Further details, especially about the academic qualifications required, may be obtained from Monsignor Roger Reader as below. I anticipate the post being formally advertised mid September"

Monsignor Roger Reader, Catholic Bishops' Prisons Adviser, Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, 39 Eccleston Square, LONDON SW1V 1BX.
