PASTORAL NOTES

NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN

"Of the Catholic chaplains and others who served during the First World War, often little is known other than what has been written about them in regimental histories and diaries. They brought to the horrors of war the comfort of faith and the sacraments. Their willingness to empathise with those they served earned sentiments of respect and admiration. In total, 179 chaplains of all denominations, who endured the risks of bringing Christ to those in most immediate danger, succumbed to the violence of the front and died serving the men whose lives they shared. For many there is a Commonwealth gravestone marking their mortal remains. For others there is no marked resting place, and they remain undiscovered in the ground of what was then no-man's land; that quagmire of dirt, mud and unidentifiable bodies blown apart by barrage after barrage. There they lie until the Resurrection, undisturbed under the green fields, safe from the horrors which took them from life. May they rest in peace". (Fr Ian A Evans CSF, assistant Chaplain General of the Royal Army Chaplains' Department)

Saturday 22nd November: CAFOD Memorial Mass at St. Edward's at 6pm. followed by a short talk and quiz in the hall from 7pm. Fish and Chip supper can be ordered on the night and you are welcome to bring your own drinks, although tea and coffee will be provided.

November Envelopes for names of deceased to be put inside are now available at all churches, to be laid by the altar at all Masses during November. There is no obligation for any offering, but if one is included then a particular named Mass will be said during the year, as normal.

Thank you to all who helped towards the UCM coffee morning and bring and buy sale last Saturday, bringing items to the hall, setting up and helping on the day, also to all who came along. The sum of £233.21 was made.

CAFOD WORLD GIFTS - this Christmas why not buy gifts for your family and friends which enable the training of a teacher or farmer? Perhaps buy some chickens for the farm or a proper toilet facility and thereby improve the lives of people in poorer countries? You can look at the gifts available and order online at <http://worldgifts.cafod.org.uk> or pick up a catalogue from your church porch or phone 0808 140 0014. Receive a beautifully illustrated card detailing your chosen gift and how it will be used or send a personalised e-gift when you order online.
