PASTORAL NOTES

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

The holy picture by the Reading-stand this weekend is of St Rose of Lima in Peru, who died in 1617, and whose feast-day is 23rd August. She and her friend, St Martin de Porres, are the first canonised saints of South America. Rose was a member of the Third Order of St Dominic, for lay people. This year we have had the beatification of Oscar Romero, a 20th century saint, bishop of San Salvador, in El Salvador. On 26th August is the memorial day of Blessed Dominic Barberi, an Italian saint, and missionary to England in the 19th century, who preached and heard confessions in spite of great difficulties with the language: he received Cardinal Newman into the Church, who instantly recognised Blessed Dominic's holiness. Dominic died on Reading Station from a heart-attack, while on a missionary journey on 17th August 1849, aged 57.

Father Paul's Sponsored Canoe Trip

Further money has been received over the last few weekends and the Treasurer of Kettering and Corby Sick Pilgrim's Trust has written. Many thanks for the cheque for £575.62 dated 11th August – monies paid in over the past 2 weekends. This brings the total to £1,580.47 for this year's sponsored canoe trip – a truly magnificent result. Thank you to all. Most of the sponsorship forms completed at the back of our Churches have NOT reached the Treasurer, and Gift Aid Tax cannot be reclaimed without them. If anyone has them for delivery, or safe keeping, please return them to St Edward's Parish Office as soon as possible. Thank you.

NEWS FROM ROTHWELL
