PASTORAL NOTES

SYRIAN REFUGEES IN JORDAN

The care of Syrian Refugees was raised at the last parish forum meeting. The Diocesan policy at present is to make donations to CAFOD earmarked for refugees. The following may also be of interest. "The Dominican Sisters and Comboni Sisters run two well-respected hospitals in Jordan, one in the capital, Amman, and the other in Karak, further to the south. Since the start of the war in Syria in 2011 the Sisters have been inundated every day with desperate Syrians seeking help for their sick and injured children and babies. Sometimes just a few antibiotics will solve the problem, but other children need complicated operations". 'Every penny you raise will go to the sisters'. An address you can write to is Adrian Hatch, International Refugee Trust, P.O. Box 31452, London W4 2FE, or mark an envelope, cheque/money to pass through the Parish.

Many thank yous to everyone who contributed to Sister Marian's appeal on behalf of the Apostleship of the Sea, giving of their old, unused rosary beads, missals, Bibles, prayer cards etc. A special thank you goes to our own Sisters for donating the last of their mementoes from the Convent. There was a very special crucifix given and this will be put on the altar of the Apostleship of the Sea's newest chapel in Kings Lynn.

CAFOD

Many thanks for the £396.00 further donations to the Friday Fast day appeal received last weekend, further donations to that appeal can be made via an envelope in the first collection this weekend and next. To date we have now forwarded £1774.04 in response to this Month's October Harvest Appeal. When thanking us for the first cheque, Cafod told us that this year's appeal is being used to support work in Niger where our money "is helping the poorest people in the world to get the skills to support themselves and not rely on hand outs". Also Harvest Fast Day Money is also supporting CAFOD's Partners work in responding to the current Refugee Crisis.
