DEFEND THE PAPACY - Would those of you with internet consider signing an online petition which seeks to defend the Holy See from those trying to silence the Church and prevent her from speaking out on behalf of the weak and vulnerable. At present the Holy See has observer status at the United Nations, enabling it to encourage genuine dialogue and promote peaceful resolution of conflicts, but there is a campaign to have this revoked. Go to www.defendtheholyysee.org This is not just for Catholics. The petition is written for all faiths who want to maintain a voice for the voiceless at the UN.

PASTORAL NOTES

APOSTLES OF MERCY

On Sunday April 27th, Pope John XXIII and Pope John-Paul II will be canonised by Pope Francis in Rome. This Sunday, with its Divine Mercy Mass, especially recalls Pope John-Paul, who instituted the feast and wrote a special encyclical, universal letter, entitled 'On the Divine Mercy'. He recalls the theme of God's mercy first of all in the Old Testament where the 'hesed' of God, the compassion of God, is proclaimed. We might remember in particular an event common to both Popes mentioned above, namely an early visit to see prisoners in Rome Prison. When Pope John XXIII paid his visit it was special as a first formal visit outside the Vatican State of a Pope for almost a century. In Pope John-Paul's case it is linked to a later scene, when he visited the man who shot him in St Peter's square. May the compassion of Christ grow in us and the whole Church. A link to the canonisation Mass can be found on the front page of the website.
