PASTORAL NOTES

As usual at this time of year, we welcome visiting priests, helping out in the parish and so allowing the local clergy to take a break. Fr Raja Dola comes to us from his studies in Rome. He is a Missionary of St Francis de Sales from the state of Andhra Pradesh in Southern India. The Church in India can look back to St Thomas the apostle as their original missionary. It is certainly true that Christian relics exist from distant Roman times, when trade between India and Europe was already taking place. Father Benny, who comes from the cathedral in Northampton once a month to celebrate the Malayalam Mass in Kettering, is also from the religious congregation, Missionaries of St Francis de Sales. Father Janusz Sniegocki from Poland is also coming to stay for a while later in July, but also helping Father Dariusz in Luton. There was a special 1,000-year celebration of the Christian faith in Poland around 1996. In our own islands, St Bede, around 730 AD put together a history of the Church also going back to Roman times. The first martyr of Britain, St Alban, a Roman soldier, suffered probably around 209 AD. You can easily obtain a copy of that history by St Bede, in translation, in Penguin paperback. The chapters are very short and readable.
