GENERAL NOTICES

PLEASE NOTE: Funeral Service for Maria Parente is on TUESDAY 8th January 11.15am. (Last week's 'Monday 7th January' was a mistake).

NO Vespers & Benediction next Sunday, body being received into church at 4.30pm.

Lost Property: A 'cut-work' cloth from the offertory table has gone missing – not very valuable, but matches the others. Has anyone taken it for washing, or knows its whereabouts? Please let us know.

Carpets from the Children's Christmas Mass are presently in the Hall – does anyone know where they are supposed to go? Thank you.

Fr Stan Condon's Autobiography – There are two copies left – though it may be possible to order some more.

Holy Hour Divine Mercy Meditation

Jesus said to Saint Faustina Kowalska: Jesus said: 'I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy. Whoever approaches the Fount of Life on this day will be granted complete remission of sins and punishment. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment'.

During this meditation I will explain the meaning of Divine Mercy Sunday and being present before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament we will pray for inner healing of our "selfishness". You are all sincerely welcome. Fr Jan Migacz, MIC

First Communion Classes for children in non-Catholic schools commence on Saturday 12th January at 9.00am in St Edward's Hall.

The Confirmation classes will start on January 25th at the Presbytery for Children in Year 6 junior school, or older, who do not go to Catholic schools. The lessons will start at 7pm for one hour and would the children bring an exercise book, pencils and a rubber with them.

If you would like to come then please contact Canon John.

Safeguarding: As of 1st December the CRB no longer happens, but is replaced by the DBS check (Disclosure and Barring Service). In practical terms this still means that those who work with children or vulnerable people in our parish undergo identity checks, taking all possible steps to ensure that those in need are kept safe from harm.
