PASTORAL NOTES
Next week is HOME MISSION SUNDAY – a day of prayer for the spread of the Gospel in England and Wales. The reason that the Church exists is to evangelise and there will be a second collection to support the vital work of the Catholic Agency to Support Evangelisation (CASE); whilst this collection is optional the Agency is part-funded by it and relies on diocesan support. The theme for this year's Sunday is 'They will know Him by the good works that you do'. While we support the Church's missionary work overseas, next Sunday's collection reminds us of a missionary gift we all have. There are two patron saints of Missionaries – St Francis Xavier, a Jesuit priest who travelled from Europe to India, Japan and the borders of China in the 16th century, and also St Theresa of Lisieux, the contemplative Carmelite sister who died in 1897 and whose relics are being venerated around the country at the moment. Together these saints may remind us of prayer and action as inseparable. Our faith leads us to look outwards to others, perhaps in sharing our faith in certain circumstances, but also in concern for the many needs around us. In prayer we ask to find the right way to share our faith.
