PASTORAL NOTES

You may have seen in the papers the news of a terrible attack on people in church, Chaldean Catholics of a very ancient lineage, resulting in a massacre of the innocents. We must pray for them all. Father Jo and I watched a video recently of the film 'Gandhi' with Ben Kingsley acting. It was very moving. One of the lines, perhaps taken from Gandhi's own writings was: 'An eye for an eye only results in both parties being blind'. Mahatma Gandhi makes us think of saintly figures in all faiths. When we read about these atrocities in the papers we might think in violent terms in return, but our faith leads us to seek even more to respect others of whatever faith, knowing that great misdeeds can occur anywhere, as Pope John Paul reminded us in the year 2000, and to work for better understanding and harmony in our own way.
