PASTORAL NOTES

In the month of November we pray especially for the departed. On the 2nd November we remember those who have died in our parish in the last year by name. The bonds of affection and friendship remain. We continue to pray for one another as before. Our prayer is not a reminder to God, but a reminder to us, and an encouragement to us on our journey of faith. No picture of these matters can be entirely adequate. Pope John Paul encouraged us to think of our coming to God as a spiritual purification and healing. Others have spoken of us being helped to let go, welcoming God's love. Others have spoken of a maturing, coming to our fullness. In it all we are reminded of a great circle of prayers of which we are all a part, on earth and in heaven.

Readings for the week:

Monday 9 November	Psalter Week 4 Dedication of the Lateran Basilica	Ez. 47:1-2. 8-9. 12; 1 Cor. 3:9-11. 16-17; John 2:13-22
Tuesday 10 November	St Leo the Great	Wis. 2:23-3:9; Luke 17:7-10
Wednesday 11 November	St Martin of Tours (Armistice Day)	Wis. 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19
Thursday 12 November	St Josaphat	Wis. 7:22-8:1; Luke 17:20-25
Friday 13 November	Feria	Wis. 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37
Saturday 14 November	Feria	Wis. 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8
Sunday 15 November	33 rd Sunday of Year B	Dan. 12:1-3; Heb. 10:11-14. 18; Mark 13:24-32

PLEASE REMEMBER in your prayers Philip Curtis who died on 29th October and whose funeral service will take place at Kettering Crematorium on Monday 9th November at 11.15am. May he rest in peace. Our prayers and condolences are with all family and friends.

GENERAL NOTICES

PLEASE NOTE - Wednesday Mass at 11.00am at St Edward's – Mass in school at 9.15am.

Many thanks to all the helpers over these weeks and especially in these last days of the priests moving back into the presbytery – moving house being one of the stressful events, apparently: we feel the stress of not knowing where things are, and fearing that messages to the clergy have gone astray. If we priests forget something, please remind us! We moved out on 3rd June and moved back on 3rd/4th November!

Thanks too for work done on the church kneelers at St Edward's, regular maintenance being part of life in a busy church.

Many thanks for a further £49.20 from the Red Mission boxes.

FREE – full size (4'6") bed and mattress. Cost over £500 a few months ago. See clergy (T Clement).

'My Day by Day' for November is available at the back of the church – price £1.

Calling 11-25 year olds – Please take a questionnaire from the back of the church (no names required) to help a survey the Union of Catholic Mothers' Study Officer Mariann French from Rushden is doing. Please return to the back of the church by 20th December. Your input is very much appreciated.

The Scout Group are looking for at least TWO people to provide additional help to the Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary on their committee with fundraising and social events. Anyone interested please contact Peter on 01536 501255.

NOTES FOR THE DIARY

10th November: "Bella" is a grass roots film with a powerful prolife message based on a true story. Viewing of the film followed by a testimony and question/answer session will be 8.30pm this Tuesday at Riverside Studios, London.

Sunday 6th December: Joint Prayer Meeting for Kettering - Adrian Horner (Open Door Church), Dan Harris (Praise Community Church) and Brian Hannant (Gateway) would like to invite Christians in the Kettering area to get together to pray specifically for our town. The event will take place at Praise Community Church, 3-5 Alexander Street, Kettering at 7.30pm.

Relief Network UK - Volunteers needed. Relief Network UK carries out projects in the UK to support projects in Africa with its Partner Relief Network Uganda.
