PASTORAL NOTES

When St John Vianney, in his late twenties, went to study for the priesthood, he found himself sitting with young boys, trying (and largely failing) to learn Latin. It was not always thus. When Ambrose, governor of the city of Milan in northern Italy, was called by the citizens to become their new bishop, (having tried to escape), he went off to a holy man in Rome for a long while, much like an apprentice might seek to learn from a master-craftsman. In Italy in the 1960s there were over 400 dioceses, many of them smaller than our Kettering parish, but very ancient – and a picture of the early church, where the bishop was very much the centre, with a group of priests whom he might send out to more distant parts, as well as deacons and many others. Priests learnt by being part of the bishop's household. This system, at some point, did not work so well. From the 5th century, parishes began to be established (ie permanent outposts), though there were still dioceses which had no parishes even by the 16th century. It was now the time of the Reformation, and part of the Catholic response was to establish institutions for the training of priests. Most of the English martyrs, men who had been trained abroad, were known as the 'seminary priests'. Today there are training centres in London. Birmingham. Guildford and near Durham. as well as international centres abroad.

CONFESSION

Saturdays after 10am Mass
and 7pm to 7.30pm.
Other times at request.

PLEASE REMEMBER in your prayers Robert Moore, who died on 4th August and whose Requiem will be celebrated on Thursday 13th August at 11am. The body will be brought into church the evening before at 4.30pm. May he rest in peace. Our prayers and condolences with all the family and friends.

MASSES THIS WEEK

THIS SUNDAY

9.00am Service with Deacon at Burton Latimer.

NEXT SUNDAY

Masses at all the churches.

Readers!! Please note, next weekend is the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary – transferred from the 15th August to the Sunday. In many countries this is the most special feast of Our Lady and celebrated with due solemnity.

THIS WEEK

Sunday: St Edward's Walkers meet outside the church at 11.00am for a short walk around Ashley. Bring a snack and walking stick.

Tuesday: Father Brian will continue his explanation of the Gospel of St Mark from 8-9pm, in the Hall or possibly the church.

Eucharistic Ministers: Revised Rota for St Edward's (because of Swine Flu recommendations) is available in the Sacristy, please collect your copy.

Application forms for the statutory CRB check are also in the sacristy at St Edward's. Please obtain and fill one in if you have not already done so. Thank you.

'The Parish News' section is now live on the St Edward's Parish Website www.stedwardskettering.org.uk. Please send any parish news for the website by email to websitenews@stedwardskettering.org.uk. If available, please enclose a photograph of the event.

Interested in becoming a Catholic or know someone who is? RCIA course starts in September and is open to all who would like to know more about the Catholic faith and who might consider becoming a Catholic when they feel ready (whether a baptised Christian or not). Contact Rose for further details/informal chat on 460909.

WANTED – Leaders for Guiding: Our District Commissioner for Headlands District Guiding, covering St Edwards, St Peter and St Paul and St Michaels is appealing for leaders for our guiding groups, otherwise they may be at risk of having to close units come July, unless we have leaders to take over in September. They need committed and enthusiastic people over the age of 18, and are interested in running or joint running a unit. They are particularly looking for leaders for Brownies, which is for girls aged 7-11, however, leaders for any group would be welcome. Please contact Nicola Cockshoot on 07813309677 and leave a message.

Holiday Time is possibly a better time for clergy home-visits, house-blessings also. If you would like a visit, just mention it to one of the priests.

NOTES FOR THE DIARY

Please note weekday Mass times this week.

Please keep in your prayers the Kettering & Corby Jumbulance Pilgrimage to Lourdes, which left on Thursday last, and will return next weekend, with Father Andy as chaplain.

Congratulations to all the couples marrying at this time.

Many thanks for the second collection last weekend for Aid To The Church In Need, which raised £905.48.

The 'Parish News' section is now live on the St Edward's Parish website www.stedwardskettering.org.uk. Please send any parish news for the website by email to websitenews@stedwardskettering.org.uk. If available, please include a photograph of the event. Free wheelchair is available in St Edward's. Please see one of the priests.

Various Days/Courses run by the Jesuit House in London are indicated on leaflets in the side porch – dates all in September. Maintenance Works have been completed on the three outer churches of the parish, which all have access for people with disabilities, and appropriate toilets. Now a similar toilet-block is being constructed for St Edward's Hall, with access from church or road (The Grove). The Hall will also be given a coat of paint, after the valiant efforts of the KSC quite a few years ago, with family help. For this reason, the hall bookings have been closed for the month of August. The Hall is a precious facility, not only for ourselves, but for many groups in the wider community, who find it a great resource. So it is a means of help to others too.

Revised Eucharistic Minister's Rota for St Edward's (because of Swine Flu recommendations) is available in the Sacristy, please collect your copy.

sanctuary@walsingham: the essential summer chillout: 27-31 August. Catholic? In your late teens/twenties? If you've been overdoing it a bit lately, a stint at our holy hideaway in the country might be just what you need. During sanctuary@walsingham you can find peace with God, chill out, meet new people and get back on track. The 5-day retreat is taking place at the Catholic shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham in Norfolk. It will include a range of talks, life-changing services, and time for quiet prayer. For more information or directions, visit www.youth2000.org call 020 8675 2743 or find Youth 2000 on Facebook. THE IRESOON FUND would be available to people wishing to attend this event. Please contact Canon John.

Sister Philomena Grimley SHCJ along with the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus are leaving Milton Keynes this summer, which means that we will lose her services. She has helped with parish catechists for a number of years. We are very grateful that her order has given her services to the diocese. If you would like to make a contribution to her leaving present we should be very grateful to receive cheques payable to the RE Service – Mgr Kevin McGinnell.

NEWS FROM BURTON LATIMER

The Rosary Group next meet at St Nicholas Owen, Burton Latimer on Thursday 20th August at 2.00pm with refreshments afterwards. Please spare 40 minutes for this worthwhile gathering. All welcome.
