"Walking Humbly With Our God" - The Diocesan initiative to ensure a "Thriving Catholic Community" continues into the future and now enters a new phase. Early in the New Year we will have the opportunity to view a 12 minute DVD and have conversations about the strengths already present in this parish. After that we will be asked to provide small groups (of perhaps 4 or 5 people) from each Church to talk to a couple of visitors from other parts of the Deanery about our present strengths and hopes for the future.

LUMOS Weekend (Friday 5th - Sunday 7th February 2010 at The Kings Park Centre, Northampton).

'Lumos' is a weekend for young people of Northampton Diocese of secondary school age and above to get together and discover more about themselves and about their Catholic faith:

"It will be a weekend with time to rest and time to riot!... there'll be activities on offer to explore more about prayer, about Mass, about faith and about justice, and at the same time we'll be getting stuck in with sport, art, drama, talent spots and social time. The theme of the weekend is 'On Fire'. We'll be looking at our relationship with the Holy Spirit and how we can live spirit-filled lives. There will be lots of outdoor activities, as well as funny and inspiring inputs and plenty of time to discuss in smaller groups! Places are limited at 'Lumos' so make sure you get your deposit in quickly to secure a place" (from the NYMO Website).

The cost of the weekend is £75 per person, but the parish would be willing to pay half of this from the Ireson Fund. If more than five young people from the parish would like to attend, however, they will need to be accompanied by an adult. For more information see the Northampton Youth Ministry website: <http://www.nymo.org>. If you are interested in going, please contact Fr Andy at the Presbytery, who will try to co-ordinate the event.
