PASTORAL NOTES

First Australian Saint: After John Henry Newman being pronounced blessed on 26th September, Mother Mary MacKillop will be pronounced Saint. Born in Melbourne, Australia, 1842, of Scottish parents, she founded a new way of religious life in Australia whereby nuns lived in twos and threes among the people, often in places where there was no resident priest but great hardship. "Her life reflects the values which are at the heart of the Australian story, a sense of a fair go for everyone, a willingness to stand on the side of the battler, egalitarianism, tenacity in facing difficult situations and a pragmatic approach to life". The novelty of her approach brought her into conflict with some bishops and she was excommunicated by the Bishop of Adelaide for insubordination and disobedience! (Not unusual for saints!) "She once said that we teach more by example than by word. Her life was devoted to doing good and guiding others to do the same". (Mission Magazine)

Anybody who is keen to join the choir (ideally we need both male and female voices) and if there is a pianist or organist who would like to play with us at the concert in early Dec (probably Sun afternoon on Dec 4th or 11th) and can make our weekly 1 hour rehearsals, please contact Nigel O'Dea on 01536 710264 or e-mail: nigelodea@aol.com.

PLEASE PRAY FOR Giulio Troiani who died on 8th October and whose funeral service is at St. Edward's at 1.00pm on Friday 15th October. May he rest in peace. Our prayers and condolences are with all family and friends.
