PASTORAL NOTES

Next Sunday, Pope Benedict will pronounce as 'Blessed' John Henry Newman (1801-1890). This most famous convert of the 19th century and outstanding scholar has somewhat local connections – at Oxford University and then Hagley Road, Birmingham. Other saints with not too distant connections with us might be St Alban, martyred for his faith possibly around 209AD and giving his name to a city, and St Edmund Campion, Jesuit priest, former student also of Oxford University and resident at Harrowden Hall, outside Wellingborough, in his efforts to bring the sacraments and the Mass to steadfast Catholics, martyred 1581. We might remember St John Fisher, companion of St Thomas More in martyrdom, bishop of Rochester, but also Chancellor of Cambridge University for a time. Or near Cambridge, there is St Etheldreda, royal and religious leader of the double monastery at Ely, monks and nuns, just outside Cambridge, born in Suffolk, died 679AD. We might also remember Blessed Peter Wright, born in Slipton, working in a lawyer's office in Thrapston, before going abroad to become a Jesuit priest, and final martyrdom in 1651, one of only two martyrs in the time of Oliver Cromwell in England.

GENERAL NOTICES

Next Weekend please note, as people are away in Birmingham for the Pope's visit, there will be a Service with the Deacon at Desborough, 9.00am. Father Andy will be with the pilgrims and Canon John and Father Raja will cover the remaining Sunday Masses. Vespers and Benediction will be very much offered for the Papal Visit that Sunday.

Plans for a new "Footsteps" year are being made this week and the RCIA group are also making plans. Watch this space!

Children's Liturgy: The rules for Safeguarding within the Catholic Church have changed. To ensure we are taking all steps to keep your children safe, we need to create a register of all children who come to Children's Liturgy. A registration form for each child is available, please complete and hand to one of the leaders. To maintain the appropriate ratio of adults to children we need more adults to volunteer to supervise the children. Please consider whether you can help us. Also, each child under five years old MUST be accompanied by an adult. Children's Liturgy will recommence at St Edward's on 19th September, once registration has been completed.

General Hospital Eucharistic Ministers – new rotas are available in the Sacristy, please collect your copy.
