PASTORAL NOTES

Our new arrivals in Queensberry Road are away for the rest of September, but Father Bosco should be able to help out with a Sunday Mass thereafter. We will be back to two priests in the parish by the end of September with Deacon Keith also. It is hoped then to include a lay-led service on Tuesdays, 10.00am, once more. The old Scout motto was 'Be Prepared!' and having people in place for emergencies who are somewhat experienced is part of that preparation. PRESENT NEEDS in the parish include help with an older Youth Group 14-17 and a request has come from Dove Court Residential Home for help with a monthly prayer/hymn service for the elderly members. Could you help? One can always attend Orchard House monthly service to get a better idea of what is involved. Meanwhile Father Suresh continues to be a great help, until the last Sunday in September (29th) when he must return to his studies for a final year in Rome – and thence to India.

'The Jumbulance group have returned safely after a wonderful pilgrimage to Lourdes led by Fr Paul. They have asked that a big thank you be passed on to everyone who has supported their fundraising, including to Fr Paul and Sophie whose canoe trip has raised £1594.62 so far, with some more still to come. The group will be issuing its own newsletter with photos from the trip in the next couple of weeks and copies will be available in all churches.'

Late night coffee shop! Plans are being made to open a coffee shop on Friday nights from 10pm - 2.00am at the Eden Centre in Montagu Street, to cater for young people (aged 18+) and anyone else who is out in the night-time economy. It will be a non-alcoholic venue, staffed by trained volunteers. We need committed people to be on the Management Committee and also need a Treasurer. If you could help, please contact Suzi Glover on 07725 175636 or Fiona de Boltz on 07702 264931.

'Meet the Quakers' at Kettering Ever wondered what the Quakers are all about? Here is your chance to find out. Kettering Quakers are to hold an evening event to introduce Quakers, their history and what they do. The event is free and all are welcome. Light refreshments will be provided.

NEWS FROM BURTON LATIMER

The Rosary Group next meet on Thursday 19th September at 2.00pm. Support for this monthly event is a bit disappointing – at best there are only 7 of us but more usually it's 2 to 5. All parishioners welcome. After the Rosary we all have tea and bikkies and a good old chat putting the world to rights! So do please come along and join us; you might find it uplifting! It starts at 2.00pm and we are finished by 3.00pm at the latest.
During the Deanery 40 Hours Adoration at St Brendan's there will be 1 hour of exposition here so that people who cannot travel can, nevertheless, participate. We are having ours here on Tuesday 24th after 7.00pm Mass.
