PASTORAL NOTES
Some notes on the history of Kettering parish seem appropriate as we rather belatedly celebrate the feast of St Edward this Sunday. On 20th September 1891 Mass was first celebrated in a rented Hall by Rev H Stanley. A drawing in the presbytery shows another house, 13 The Grove, where the priest first lived, and on 1st June 1892 the first Mass was celebrated in the present house (we have a drawing of a sort of chapel arrangement on the ground floor). On 11th January 1893 Rev Allies first celebrated Mass in St Edward's Church (now the church hall), and on 20th October 1940 our present St Edward's Church was opened, and consecrated on 24th September 1946. Holy Trinity Church, Desborough was acquired and opened in 1972. St Nicholas Owen, Burton Latimer was blessed on 2nd March 1972. St Bernadette's, Rothwell, was blessed on 19th June 1959. Earlier than all these was St Luke's in Kettering, officially registered for worship on 1st May 1957. The last Mass celebrated there was on 25th January 1998.
