PASTORAL NOTES

Sometimes on holiday people like to visit old historical sites, including the ruins of ancient monasteries, destroyed in the time of Henry VIII. Today there are again monasteries and religious houses in many parts of the country, including one Carthusian monastery of the strictest community of all. The Carthusian Order has never been reformed because so simple and experiencing constant internal reform, to keep the community on track. The founder, St Bruno, (1030-1101) established 30 'Charterhouses' by the time of his death. There were seven houses in England at the time of the Reformation. Today the Charterhouse at Parkminster is re-established. At the time of the Reformation the purity and lack of corruption in these monasteries made them a special object of royal anger. The heads of three monasteries were executed, then three monks, then ten, then a further two. The rest were dispersed or fled the country, the houses destroyed.

The famous Icon by the Hymn-board table recalls today's Reading where Abraham shows hospitality to three strangers and, in the next moment, one stranger, with his message from God. The Icon recalls how the Church sees an image of the Holy Trinity, one and three, in this story.

Fairtrade: we have some items approaching their sell-by date. Watch out for reduced prices!

Papal Visit Update The whole parish has been allocated 94 tickets for the "Mass of Beatification" at Cofton Park, Birmingham on Sunday 19th September at 9.30am. We have to travel by "Official Coach" from Northampton Cathedral at a cost of £25 per person. Further details, including time of departure for the 64 mile journey from Northampton, security and parking arrangements etc. will be announced as soon as possible. We could be looking at a very early start! Cofton Park will be opening at 3.00am, coach departures have to be co-ordinated nationwide to ensure smooth delivery to Birmingham. In view of the increase in costs and other complications, will those who registered their interest still wishing to go please confirm this by way of the lists at the back of the churches. Some funds have generously been made available to assist those who find £25 too much.

A Parish Priest's vacation! Fr Gerard Byrne, Parish Priest of St. Brendan's, Corby, is spending his holiday cycling round the 32 county towns of Ireland, a distance of 1100 miles!
