PASTORAL NOTES

One of the great secondary Catholic schools in the then much larger diocese of Northampton was St. Joseph's, Ipswich, for boys (now a full comprehensive Catholic school) - and run by the De La Salle brothers, a French teaching order of brothers founded in the 18th century. The Catholic Herald (1st August) had a lengthy article about an English member of the Order in Peru today, standing up for the poor natives of the country and trying to save the Amazon Forests for the sake of us all. 23rd August is the feast of St. Rose of Lima, Peru, reminding us of the whole South American continent and how, putting God first, can make us protest against the suffering and injustice perpetrated when something else takes His place. St. Rose became a member of the (lay) Third Order of St. Dominic and lived largely the life of a hermit, in a little hut in the family garden. There are still hermits to this day, some living in big cities. It is not a common vocation, but a particular expression of God's love seen in all things. A great friend, St. Martin de Porres, a lay Dominican brother, might be considered just the opposite, actively caring for all in need, even animals like donkeys badly used! Somewhere we have to find a place in our lives for both Martha and Mary, for active charity and contemplation.

THIS WEEK

Clergy: We welcome back this weekend Mgr Janusz who will be staying with us until September 3rd. Canon John is due to arrive back from holidays some time on Wednesday, while Fr Andy will be off to Lourdes with the Jumbulance on Thursday, due to arrive back on Saturday 4th September.

GENERAL NOTICES

Eucharistic Ministers: New Rotas are available in the Sacristy, please collect your copy.

Children's Liturgy: The rules for Safeguarding within the Catholic Church have changed. To ensure we are taking all steps to keep your children safe, we need to create a register of all children who come to Children's Liturgy. A registration form for each child will be available on 5th and 12th September.

To maintain the appropriate ratio of adults to children we need more adults to volunteer to supervise the children. Please consider whether you can help us. Also, each child under five years old MUST be accompanied by an adult.

CAFOD APPEAL for Pakistan: A further £447.16 was received last weekend and £111 of that was Gift Aided (so another £28.75 tax to come back). Many thanks. (Over the two weekends the total collected was £1959.26 and there is £193.53 tax refund to add to that!)

Jumbulance Grand Draw tickets available at the back of all churches, please support this local charity taking sick pilgrims to Lourdes etc. Draw takes place on 26th September 2010. Counterfoils and money can be returned, in an envelope marked 'Jumbulance Raffle', please via the Sunday Collections plates.

Sponsorship Money Many thanks for supporting Andy Allen's run and Fr Gerard's ride. Further donations, if any, may be placed in envelopes marked with sponsorship and your details (to match you to the sponsorship).

Are you an ex pupil from St Edwards Primary School?

As a launch for our new reception area, we will be holding a re-union on the 18th September 2010 in the School.

Tickets are available at a cost of

£5 (Adult) or £3 (under 18's)

7pm – 11pm

All money raised will go towards the schools building fund.

For further information please contact the School Office on 01536 418430 or email us steds.reunion@gmail.com
