PASTORAL NOTES FAREWELL TO FATHER JAN

Father Jan, a member of a Polish Missionary Congregation, the Marian Fathers, came to us last September and will be leaving on 1st July. He has not only helped with Sunday and weekday Masses and Confessions for our own Parish and our Polish community, but also with a weekly Friday-night prayer-group and Legion of Mary – and in other ways as well. He will be returning in the first place to Poland and then visit the Mission foundations in India with his Superior. Thereafter he may be appointed to the Polish Mission in Ealing, London, where he has helped out last Christmas and Easter. Our sincere thanks to him for his hard work and spontaneous contribution to our parish life. Next Sunday (30th June) is his last Sunday and a statutory collection for the work of Pope Francis, Peter's Pence so-called. If you wish to make an offering going to the religious community of Father Jan, there is a chance today or during the coming week.
