PASTORAL NOTES

A very warm welcome to Father Josemarie Kizito from Uganda, known to us as Father Jo, who visited us briefly many years ago, and whom we have been trying to support over this period. He is a chaplain to a Refugee Centre not far from the Congo border, with about 25,000 refugees there. They come from Congo, Burundi, Rwanda, Sudan, all places of civil unrest or war, and about half the refugees are Catholic, so Father Jo is kept busy. He has three religious sisters as helpers, members of a local religious congregation. He also has two youngsters from among the refugees who are going forward for the priesthood: we have been helping finance the first one already. With so many different nationalities to cope with Father Jo has had to ask them to elect their own leaders who work with Father Jo. Also the Legion of Mary, widespread in African countries, is a great support. Father Jo will be with us until 4th December: sorry it's so cold Father Jo!
