PASTORAL NOTES

The Feast of the founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) St Ignatius Loyola falls next Saturday 31st July. Another famous St Ignatius was a martyr bishop from Syria, died 108AD. The picture under the hymn board at present is of Ignatius Spencer (1799-1864), an increasingly well known priest of the 19th century. George Spencer was the youngest of seven children, a member of the well-known Northamptonshire family, the Spencers of Althorp, from whom came Lady Diana Spencer, the mother of Princes William and Harry. George Spencer, to the dismay of his family, was a convert to the Catholic faith. Unusually for the time, he was not cut off by the family, but was gradually made welcome again. He took the name Ignatius when he joined the Passionist Order and became famous as an early apostle of ecumenism, working for the unity of all Christians. We might ask his prayers for the present time when all Christians are facing special difficulties. As we prepare to welcome Pope Benedict, successor of St Peter, we pray especially for the light of Christ to shine more clearly for all our fellow citizens.
