PASTORAL NOTES

The naming of John Henry Newman last week as 'Blessed' was the end of a long road, which included another holy man, Blessed Dominic Barberi. He was a Passionist priest born 1792 in Viterbo, Italy, and conceived an idea that one day he would serve in England. Without knowing a word of the language, he came to England as a missionary and, curiously, was able to make himself understood, especially in the confessional and had a most successful mission. In 1845 he came to meet John Henry Newman, who recognised him immediately as a saint – it is said that saints can recognise one another – and Blessed Dominic soon received Newman into the Church. Dominic continued his missionary work until 1849 when he suffered a heart attack aboard a train, and died on the platform of Reading Station in Berkshire. We can ask the prayers of both these holy men for our missionary efforts today. Bl Dominic's feast is on 26th August – Newman's feast is now on 9th October, the day Dominic received him into the Church.

GENERAL NOTICES

Thanks from Canon John for all the kind wishes and congratulations expressed for the 40th anniversary of ordination – rather a lot to live up to! Thanks too for the very generous cheque from the money gifted by parishioners. Please keep your priests in your prayers.

Thank you also from Canon John to all who helped with the anniversary Mass last Wednesday and were so welcoming to the visitors who joined us – music, flowers, booklets, serving and a wondrous reception must all be remembered with great thanks.

The U.C.M. would like to thank the families of the parish who contributed food for Canon John's 40th Anniversary. A lunch was held the next day raising £54.50 for Pakistan. Well done to all who helped and supported.

Papal visit – Many thanks to all who worked so hard to organise and lead the parish group to the Beatification Mass in Birmingham last Sunday – and congratulations to all the pilgrims not daunted by the early start and originally rainy conditions!

Special thanks and prayers for Father Raja who has been such a help for the last three months, but must return to his studies on Saturday 2nd October. Our very good wishes go with him. ALSO Michael Patey, our student for the priesthood, will leave us on Tuesday 28th September and return to Rome to begin his sixth year. It has been a pleasure to have him and hope he has found his stay in the parish beneficial for the future.
