PASTORAL NOTES

Connections with saints

Sometimes we are more connected with particular saints than usual. This week we have the founder of the Society of Jesus (St Ignatius), often known as 'Jesuits'. A number of Jesuit martyrs in the time of the Reformation are connected with us, including Blessed Peter Wright of Slipton & Thrapston, but also St Edmund Campion, who was protected in various priest-hiding-holes in our area. We had a parish mission led by a Jesuit not many years ago, Fr John Edwards, who died quite recently. Pope Francis entered the Jesuit Society before being elected Pope. St Alphonsus (Wednesday) is the founder of the Redemptorist Order, (who produce our weekly parish bulletin) who give a variety of services to the Church. St John Vianney, a 19th century parish priest in France, foresaw a future bishop of Northampton, and the mother of the future bishop bought a bishop's cross (worn round the neck) on the strength of that prediction. The cross is in Bishop's House still as a treasured memory.

Readings for the week:

Monday 30 July	Feria	Jeremiah 13: 1-11; Matthew 13: 31-35
Tuesday 31 July	St Ignatius of Loyola	1 Corinthians 10: 31-11: 1; Luke 14: 25-33

Kettering and District Foodbank Appeal

The Kettering and District Foodbank supported over three thousand people in food poverty last year and many of them were families with young children.

We have two peak demand times during the year, during the winter, as you would expect, but also now during the school summer holidays. Many families whose children receive free school meals during term times do not get this support during the school holidays. This causes significant pressure on the parents limited resources and they just can't manage, so have to resort to Foodbanks.

Also, the rollout of Universal Credit, the new benefits system in Kettering due to be introduced in October, will add to the severe pressure on our Foodbank's ability to deal with the demand. The Trussell Trust data shows this can increase by 52% Foodbank demand, as there is a six week delay for payments between the old and new systems.

The Kettering and District Foodbank therefore urgently needs the support of our community to help us ensure that no one in genuine need goes hungry in our Town. If you can help with food, especially tinned, meat and fish, vegetables, fruit, tea and long life milk we will be very grateful. Donations can be given directly to our Foodbank in Stanier Close, Kettering, our KCU shops in Gold Street and High Street or our offices next to the Fuller Church. Monetary donations can be made on the "My Donate" page on our website www.kcultd.org.uk. Any support you can give will be greatly appreciated.
