PASTORAL NOTES

Two pictures are being hung this weekend in St Edward's – a symbolic picture of the Lord's baptism, as the true priest, prophet and king – but also a rendering of a parable from St Luke, about the poor man at the rich man's gate – perhaps a reminder of many in need.

ALSO Please note a list in the porch to sign up for the trip to Mount St Bernard's Abbey, a journey of about an hour, possibly in different cars if not enough for a coach.

Readings for the week:

DESBOROUGH NOTES

After Mass next Sunday there will be an open conversation regarding the refurbishment and improvements appropriate to turn the hall into a multi-purpose Church Building to cater for the Community for the next 100 years. It is hoped everybody in the Holy Trinity Community will be there to have their say! Many thanks to those of you who have already submitted their very sensible and realistic ideas. Anybody else who wishes to put anything in writing please email canon.john@stedwardskettering.org.uk Following that meeting we expect to meet with the Diocesan Director of Development and an architect with a view to making progress in the very near future.

Knights of St Columba Centenary 2019. To mark the 100th anniversary of the formation of the organisation on 5th October 1919 the symbolic "Fraternal Cross" is touring the United Kingdom. It will be received at St Edward's Kettering on 19th January where it will remain for all Masses in St Edward's before leaving for St Brendan's Parish in Corby after the 7.00pm Mass on Sunday 20th.
