PASTORAL NOTES

Easter Week

These days from Easter Sunday to the following Sunday are considered as one Easter Day. The Readings are all to do with proclaiming the Risen Lord, a time of great rejoicing. We have gone from the Last Supper to the Lord appearing to the disciples gathered in the Upper Room, the Lord ever with us, uniting us in His love at His table.

A very special thanks is included for all the hidden work in home and families preparing for Easter, and for all the unseen work in polishing and cleaning, practising singing, going through the parts played by altar-servers, sewing Maundy-bags, or making Easter flowers.

Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen!

Readings for the week:

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM SAFEGUARDING

An item was posted to the Diocesan Safeguarding Office, however it was under paid for, therefore it was sent to the Northampton Delivery office. Our safeguarding team did not manage to get to the delivery office on time, therefore this post has now either been sent back to the sender if the sender indicated their address, if not, then it goes off to Belfast and could be destroyed. If you think this relates to any mail you have sent prior to the 4th March, please let Vivien know 01536 501255 and then the office can narrow it down as to which person/s it relates to.
