PASTORAL NOTES The Easter Season
In the eastern Orthodox Christian tradition and eastern Catholic tradition, Deacons seem to have much singing to do in the Liturgy. On the Saturday before the Easter Vigil a Deacon will be in church (perhaps alone) chanting the whole of the Acts of the Apostles. For us, from Easter to Pentecost, we hear each day at Mass a Reading from the same Acts of the Apostles, which begins with the Ascension of Jesus and goes through to St Paul finally arriving as a prisoner in Rome. With the mission of Peter and, especially of St Paul, we are given a picture of the spread of the Church – not without its crises, which include the first 'Council' of the early Christian community, which makes clear the end of the Jewish dietary laws, and so symbolises the word of Jesus meant for all peoples, in faith, hope and charity. St Paul's arrival in Rome, and later St Peter, future martyrs both, expresses the same message.

Readings for the week:
Monday 20 May	Feria	Acts 14: 5-18; John 14: 21-26
Tuesday 21 May	Feria	Acts 14: 19-28; John 14: 27-31
Wednesday 22 May	Feria	Acts 15: 1-6; John 15: 1-8
Thursday 23 May	Feria	Acts 15: 7-21; John 15: 9-11
Friday 24 May	Feria	Acts 15: 22-31; John 15: 12-17
Saturday 25 May	St Bede	Acts 16: 1-10; John 15: 18-21
Sunday 26 May	6 th Easter Sunday C	Acts 15: 1-2, 22-29; Revelation 21: 10-14, 22-23; John 14: 23-29

Have you collected your Offertory Envelope for this year? There are still many to be picked up.
A box of envelopes with No. 79 is missing. If anyone has taken box No 79 by mistake, please return it to the back of St Edward's Church. Thank you. (Should anyone require a box of envelopes, please contact Ken Anderton on K 514302).

Barton Seagrave Church is 900 years old in 2020.
In 1120-22, Geoffrey de Clinton is recorded as having built on the current site of St Botolph's in Barton Seagrave, a church with Norman architecture, and as having 'given' it to the Monastery of Kenilworth. There may well have been an earlier building on the site, but we can be sure that by 2020, there will have been a Christian presence in Barton Seagrave for at least 900 years. So, to celebrate 900 plus years of the link between church and community in Barton Seagrave, it is planned that there should be a series of special activities and events throughout 2020. We are calling it "Festival 900+"

We would like to invite a representative of each member church of Churches Together in Kettering and District to join us at the Festival Opening service at St Botolph's Church, on Sunday 26th April 2020 at 6.30pm.

Diocesan Request for Volunteers. Would you like to help shape the future of Catholic education in the Diocese? Do you have the skills to help direct the strategy and ethos of academies which currently educate over 10,000 pupils across the Diocese? Bishop Peter is currently recruiting Foundation Directors (non-executive) for our new Multi Academy Trusts in the north and south of the Diocese. The closing date for the first round of applications is 31st May 2019. Application details at <http://bit.ly/20PBIYx> or by contacting Debbie Main on 01582 723312 or main@nores.org.uk "ACADEMY DIRECTOR RECRUITMENT" POSTER IN EACH CHURCH.
