Message from Father Gregory

I am very grateful to Bishop Peter for incardinating me that is, for including me permanently in his diocese. From that moment I am no longer a "priest on loan", but I became one of the priests of the diocese of Northampton. It is really a great honour for me. I am also very grateful for being appointed a parish priest for the Kettering Parish.

Pray for God's blessing for Bishop Peter as he continues his ministry, and for our bishop-elect, Canon David Oakley

O Lord, who for the feeding of your flock have chosen your servant David as our bishop elect, grant him, we pray, a spirit of counsel and fortitude, a spirit of knowledge and piety, so that, by faithfully governing the people entrusted to him, he may build up in the world the sacrament of the Church.

THINKING OF GETTING MARRIED IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

Congratulations, but have you booked your required marriage preparation course yet? Sadly, in England currently 42% of all marriages end in divorce. However, studies show that couples who do good quality marriage preparation have a much lower rate of divorce and better relationship resilience. Our course at St. Edwards enables you to fully explore and understand what makes your relationship unique and teaches skills for realistic consolidation of your commitment to each other. Many couples on our courses are already living together and may initially feel that attendance is a waste of their time but soon discover new and practical ways to further develop and enrich their relationship. Couples are surprised to learn that divorce statistics for those who have co-habited are much higher but the course explains how to avoid this so it is equally useful to co-habiting couples and those living separately. All relationships benefit from being constructively reflected upon and feedback shows that, no matter how long they have known each other, couples discover skills enabling them to talk and reflect in ways they never imagined! This is important to do before making a full sacramental commitment - so church law requires all couples to attend marriage preparation, whatever their living status or faith. Our next courses start on February 16 and May 3. More details at www.stedwardskettering.org.uk/catholic-marriage-preparation/

Please remember in your prayers:

Mrs Mary Olive Dolan whose funeral will take place on Tuesday 28th January at St Bernadette's, Rothwell at 10am. The burial will take place at Loddington Churchyard.

Newspapers, magazines and books

We have noticed over the last few months that we are left with many newspapers at the end of the month. After looking at the amount sold for each paper, we have taken the decision to cancel subscriptions of Ireland's Own and The Irish Post as we are usually left with all of the copies that we order. We have reduced the amount of The Universe and The Catholic Herald newspapers and also My Day by Day and Magnificat. If you do wish to order any of these you can order directly to your home.

This week, we started renovating and painting the sacristy. On Thursday after mass at 10am I would like to organize cleaning there. Please join us if you want to help.

Today is Peace Sunday

We have a second collection today for 'Pax Christi' The work of Pax Christi is based on the gospel and inspired by faith. The vision is of a world where people can live in peace, without fear and violence in all its forms. Collection envelopes are available at the ends of the pews for any donations toward the work of Pax Christi.
