PASTORAL NOTES

The town of Orvieto north of Rome, in the Middle Ages, a major town in the then Papal States, still holds a very grand 'Corpus Christi' procession every year, issuing from a most beautiful medieval Gothic Cathedral. (Basic Bible stories are sculpted on the facade of the Cathedral and major artists have contributed to paintings within). The procession today is still performed in ancient dress, knights in armour on horseback, various Guilds of different trades are represented and crowds come from all over to take part. At the centre is the Blessed Sacrament. In a different setting from the hills of Galilee, it nevertheless is a very startling image of Jesus walking with us in our lives, on our journey, in every age.

Many Thanks for all the help with the 'Corpus Christi' Procession last Sunday, welcoming parishioners from all over the Pastoral Area: a special thanks for the School's help and for the Teas! and flowers!

Holy Communion at the Altar! Please receive Communion at the altar, whether the Host is received in the hand or in the mouth. It is NOT to be carried around in any Church tradition. We are then free to receive from the Chalice or not, as we wish. This is the ruling of the English and Welsh bishops, not a local one. The Sacrament is best safeguarded this way. Thank you.

"Footsteps" - MANY THANKS to all who shared with us this past year. We next meet in October with a new programme.
