PASTORAL NOTES

REST IN PEACE

It is with much sadness, but also with heartfelt gratitude for her life, that we record the death, on Tuesday 13th January, of much-loved Sister Anita, known to so many in our town as Sister Liz. In Teaching and Nursing, Counselling and Visiting, she has become a by-word for her wisdom, humour and down-to-earth advice - and unflinching care. Our thoughts must be first of all with her religious Sisters, Marion and Aidan in Kettering, Theresa in Nazareth House, Northampton, and her other Sisters in communities throughout the world, not forgetting her brother, and untold number of friends over so many years. As she prayed for so many in her life, so we prayerfully commend her to God's loving care. "Well done, good and faithful servant! Enter into the House of the Lord".

GENERAL NOTICES

Speaker at St Edward's at 10.30am Mass this Sunday for the Street Pastors is Stuart Goldsmith of the Salvation Army.

Extended Adoration

On Monday evening, from 7.00pm the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for silent prayer. On Wednesday morning from 9.00am to 10.00am Mass and Friday from 6.30-7.30pm There are no special prayers during these times, but only an invitation to quiet prayer. It has however been suggested that a prayer-theme be mentioned, starting with God as Father. Jesus gives us that example of intimate prayer with his heavenly Father, even praying all night. Among many lines of the Gospel he includes the parable of the loving Father and the two sons. We might pray for ourselves or others feeling lost or adrift. At Thursday prayer (Benediction 7.30-8.00pm). another suggestion has been to invite special intentions for prayer each week. This week will be for all caring for the sick or elderly, at home or in hospital, and for the sick themselves.

Our prayers and good wishes go with Michael Bates, as he returns for some treatment on his knee and then to College in Birmingham, and thanks for his cheerful and helpful presence. May God continue to guide him in his preparation for the priesthood.

The Senior Teas at St Edward's School scheduled for 22nd January at 1.30pm will be rearranged.
