PASTORAL NOTES

On a Sunday once a month our parishioners from St Nicholas Owen, Burton Latimer, lead an ecumenical service at Orchard House Residential Home, in Barton Seagrave, for the resident senior citizens. This Advent was a special treat – our own fine young singers, Rebecca and Susanna, were joined by our famous Kettering young singer, Faryl Smith, at a service much appreciated by all. The service included the usual Christmas carols and readings, but is much appreciated throughout the year. This service has been arranged for seven years now, always on the third Sunday of the month at 11.00am. The next service will be on 16th January 2011. Anyone is welcome to come along, join in, or – with the help of the old hands – take a particular part.
