PASTORAL NOTES

Basic information on the Parishes of our Pastoral Area were given to the Bishop last year. This deanery now includes – CORBY parishes: St Brendan's & St Patrick's with one priest, Fr Gerard Byrne – St John Ogilvie with Fr Stephen McGuinness and two Deacons – Our Lady's with Fr Robert Preece and one Deacon, and Kettering parish with two priests and one active Deacon, with the parish church and three further churches. Last but not least, Fr Brian Leatherland cares for two parishes – Oundle & Thrapston/Raunds, three churches in all. There are semi-retired priests living in our area and helping each week – Fr Tony Whitfield, Fr Stan Condon and Mgr Pat McAleenan. Each parish has many other 'personnel' but here special mention may be made of Readers and Eucharistic Ministers, our schools and Hospital visitors. On 20th January 2011 the clergy meet with the Bishop; on 26th January all the clergy of the Pastoral Area, the six lay members of the steering group meet with Bishop Peter to receive and consider the Bishop's response to the Groundplan. That document distils all the ideas expressed in general meetings and "guided Conversations" throughout the Deanery which have been ongoing since December 2008, following the "Walking Humbly" DVD. Further efforts will be made to let everyone's voice be heard. The Bishop's vision is of greater co-operation between our parishes which, to some extent, we have begun.
