PASTORAL TEACHINGS

FATHER JO IN UGANDA

Many thanks for the constant help given to Father Jo in the St Patrick's Refugee Centre in Uganda. Friday 3rd June was the feast of the Uganda Martyrs, the first beheaded in November 1885, 25 others – the youngest 13 – executed on 3rd June 1886 by a cruel and degenerate king. Other executions followed, including several from an Anglican mission. Father Jo will have been celebrating with his community, remembering the canonisation of these martyrs by Pope Paul VI in 1965, when the Pope made special mention also of the Anglican martyrs. In Kettering we have been supporting youngsters thinking of becoming priests – there is a photo on the noticeboard, and a thank-you card. We have also been trying to raise money for computers for local education, now over £500, half-way to our desired total. The feast of Pentecost, with the Holy Spirit inspiring us to witness to Christ, is also a good time to remember old friends.

I invite you to join me with your comments and questions as I make my way'.
