PARISH FACEBOOK PAGE - A BLESSING OR A THREAT?

Although I do not have a Facebook profile myself, I am very grateful for our parish Facebook page and everyone involved in it, because it is a very valuable instrument for promoting our parish, the entire Catholic Church and, above all, an instrument of evangelization to which we are all called. My positive feelings about Facebook are sometimes mixed with concern, especially when I see myself or hear from others about very controversial content published on our parish profile. On the one hand, we live in a free country and Facebook is a forum where everyone can express their views and opinions within the law on various topics, but on the other hand, we are responsible for the faith of others. We cannot mislead our brothers and sisters or undermine their trust in the Holy Father and the bishops who are the shepherds of the Church. I would like to encourage you to think about certain criteria that will ensure that our parish profile will not cause any divisions, controversies and confusion, but will always be an effective instrument of evangelization and mutual love. I propose that the basic criterion for publishing content and articles should always be the official teaching of the Church contained in the Bible and Tradition that is in:

- the teaching of the Fathers of the Church and Saints,
- the teaching of our current Holy Father Francis and his predecessors,
- the Catechism of the Catholic Church,
- the teaching of the Councils and especially the Second Vatican Council.

Any other way of thinking about the future of the Church, improving it, and solving its internal problems resembles the ways and attitude of Martin Luther, Henry VIII, and many others whose names we know from history. We must remember that the purpose and task of our Facebook page is neither reforming nor 'converting the Church to the right path' nor pointing out its sins and weaknesses because, as we know, every authentic, true and positive reform of the Church begins with reform and the conversion of its members - that is ourselves. We change, 'fix' and 'improve' the Church not through the Facebook page but only in the confessional box. If you have any doubts or do not know whether what you are going to publish on our website will serve the good of the Church and the parish, do not hesitate to talk to me. I will always find time to listen to you and advise you if you need it, but above all I will pray for you for the light of the Holy Spirit and his guidance whenever you visit the Internet with the sincere intention to proclaim the Good News of salvation as a disciple of Jesus. Thank you for your contribution to our Facebook Page.

BATTLE OF THE ANGLES

This week on September 29 we honour the three archangels named in Scripture: Michael (in Daniel, Jude and Revelation), Gabriel (in Daniel and Luke), and Raphael (in Tobit). In Scripture we are told they deliver messages to various people. In the case of Michael, they act as a leader to the heavenly host in their battle against evil. No matter whether they relay God's will or act as an instrument for divine providence, angels represent a conduit between heaven and earth.

Revelation is a book in the Bible written from within St. John's close circle of disciples. It contains the author's vision of Heaven but should be understood to be a product of its time, written to give hope to the Church in a period of persecution and prophesying the downfall of the Roman Empire. It uses figurative language, symbols, visions and picturesque descriptions of the struggle between good and evil. Chapter 12:7-12 tells about a war in heaven when Michael and his angels took on the dragon. The dragon and his "angels" were part of the heavenly court but acted only in their own interests. The dragon created divisions within the court and drove a wedge between loyal subjects and God. By creating discord in the heavenly court, the dragon hoped to eventually topple God in a coup de tat. The dragon's devious intrigue gave him the name "Deceiver."

The heavenly battle ejected the dragon and his angels from the divine realm and hurled them to earth. We are told this had two results. First, the angels and saints in heaven rejoiced, for the one who had sown so much discord was now gone. Second, however, the Evil One and his minion now acted on earth in the lives of people. The seeds of hatred, doubt, and selfishness were spread among the populace. Jesus Himself taught that earth was the devil's domain.

With Diabolos (the ancient Satan serpent) gone, the heavenly faithful could cry praise to the Lamb and the sacrifice he made for the saints. They defeated the devil with the "Blood of the Lamb" as a weapon. His death on the cross made the victory over the dragon possible.

Let us not forget our own Guardian Angels who pray for us, protect and guide us and offer our prayers, good works and desires to God. Like the saints, they bring God closer to us and us closer to our Maker. Theologically, each of us has a specific guardian angel to watch over us night and day (cf. Ps 34:7, Mt 18:10, Acts 12:15), but how often do we recall this sublime reality? Do we ask for their guidance daily or ignore them?

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FATHER GREGORY ABOUT APPLICATIONS TO BISHOP STOPFORD SCHOOL

I am sure that parents are aware that on the application form there is a section about the church leader. When you fill this in, please come and see me at any time, before or after any Mass, with a photocopy of the form. I will then be able to keep a record of who is applying to the school and when they contact me with a list of applicants, it will be easy for me to check the names put forward. If I have not met someone, even very briefly, it is very hard for me to verify a name on the list. I would like to avoid confusion and disappointment at a later date. There is no need to make an appointment, a quick 'Hello Father' and a smile will do! Fr Gregory

THE CALL OF CREATION

This September marks a year since the Bishops of England and Wales republished The Call of Creation

<https://www.cbcew.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/sites/3/2022/10/Call-of-Creation-2022b.pdf>

a document that encourages us to repair our relationship with God's creation. It recognises the interconnectedness of the biggest challenges of our times and urges each of us to ask ourselves how we can protect our common home.

CHURCH STATISTICS

From this weekend, we will be counting the number of people attending Mass. Counting will take place over four weekends:

This weekend

30th September - 1st October

7th - 8th October

14th -15th October

Thank you to Marian, Alan, Caroline and Claudia who have already replied to my request.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Let us thank God for providing us with His gifts - or as we say before the Eucharistic Prayer - 'the fruits of the earth and work of human hands'. Once again, we will be having Harvest Sunday during the Masses of 23rd /24th September (Including Desborough). I encourage you to bring a small offering of fresh fruit and vegetables, which will be blessed. After Mass we will transfer everything to the parish hall for the members of the Soup Kitchen. I thank you for your generosity.

FR ELVIS' ARRIVAL - NEXT WEEKEND

Let us give Fr Elvis a warm St Edward's Parish welcome!

HOSPITAL MINISTRY - RESTARTING

'For I was sick and you looked after me'

Matthew 25

I am very pleased to say that our priestly ministry in the hospital will be supported by Eucharistic ministers who will be visiting all Catholic patients and offer them Holy Communion. Initially the Volunteers will go to the hospital every fortnight while the number of Volunteers grows. I will keep praying that more parishioners will come forward for this very important ministry. Please contact me if you are willing to help.

OCTOBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

We are approaching October which is the month of the Holy Rosary. We will pray the Rosary in our church on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. I would like the following organisations to lead that prayer for us:

Tuesday at 9.30 am - Legion of Mary and UCM

Wednesdays at 9.30 am - Readers and Eucharistic Ministers

Friday at 6.30 pm - Fr Gregory, Fr Elvis and Altar Servers

Rosary at Rothwell (St Bernadette's Church) is every Thursday at 11 am.

There is one more, new initiative how we can venerate the Queen of The Holy Rosary. Jesus said to Mary and St John on Calvary:

‘Mother this is your son, Son this is your Mother’.

And from that moment John took her to himself.

Following the example of St John, the Apostle we would like to take Our Lady to our homes as well, and pray through her intercession. On the table (next to the Sacred Heart) there will be a statue of Our Lady and a rosary blessed by Pope Francis. Each of us can take that statue and rosary for one evening and invite our family to pray the rosary together. You can cover your table with white cloth and light a candle if you wish. If you live alone, you can invite your friends. There will be a booking list on the table as well for those who are willing to take part in this initiative, so that we are sure that Our Lady will be in our homes. Please take the statue and rosary after a Mass and return both before the next. October has 31 days, so please don't miss out this opportunity of having our Blessed Mother at your home, and pray the Rosary.

YOUTH GROUP AND INITIATIVES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE IN THE PARISH

Our Parish is very blessed with a number of groups and societies. However, most of them are for adults. So, we are thinking about establishing a youth group for children 12-17 years old. Recently Fr Gregory approached his friends who work as a team of youth ministers within the Westminster Diocese. We would like to invite them to our parish in October/November to share their ideas and give us some tips on how to enthuse young people to be involved in the life of the Church. If you would like to get involved, please come forward to Fr Gregory. We are grateful to the Ireson family, who lived in our parish, for financial sponsorship of activities for the youth of our parish.

CAFOD NEWS

It has been very upsetting to see the news this week about the earthquake in Morocco and the terrible floods in Libya. We hope everyone will join us in praying for the communities affected and for the helpers responding to these disasters.

How are CAFOD responding in Libya?

Storm Daniel hit Libya on 10 September, triggering devastating tsunami-like floods. Two dams burst, submerging the port city of Derna. It's feared many thousands have died, with many more missing. CAFOD doesn't have an established programme in Libya and the collapse of state structures there makes it very difficult for aid agencies to operate, but because of the scale of the disaster we will be working with a trusted partner to ensure that help can get to where it is most needed. We have launched a Libya Floods Appeal so that donations can be made to help those affected directly. We will also be relying on the prayers of the Catholic community of England and Wales as our partner works through the unique challenges of delivering help following this crisis.

How are CAFOD responding in Morocco?

It is now estimated that more than 2,800 people have been killed by the earthquake, which struck the High Atlas Mountains, south of Marrakech on Friday. Many roads are blocked by collapsed buildings which is making the rescue effort very difficult. The Moroccan government have not appealed for international aid, but we have been able to send a grant of £30,000 to a local Church partner, Caritas Rabat, to enable them to adapt their usual work and support the families affected by the earthquake. Your steadfast support and that of the whole Catholic Community of England and Wales during previous emergencies and Fast Days is what has enabled us to quickly make this grant to support work in Morocco, and to find a way to help communities devastated by the flooding in Libya. Thank you.

This coming Fast Day, we'll be sharing Meera's story, whose home in Pakistan was swept away by floods last year. With extreme disasters like these happening more and more, your love and support is needed now more than ever.

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION

If you would like your child to be baptised, please contact Fr Gregory. Parents who would like their children to be baptised are invited to attend Baptismal Preparation on the first Monday of the month at 7 pm at St Edward's Church. The next meeting will be on Monday, 2nd October 2023.

A PLACE OF CALM

Dear Parents of our youngest children, we realise how difficult it is for you when your children get 'lively' or 'upset'. Therefore, we invite you to take them upstairs to the organ loft, which is above the sacristy. It is a safe place with a triple sound-proof window overlooking the altar. There is a speaker up there, so you will be able to take an active part in the Mass and your children will become calm and comfortable. Please take care on the stone steps.
